

Bank of South Sudan-BoSS

December 22, 2023

Meeting Public Demand for Foreign Exchange

The Bank of South Sudan is taking proactive measures to meet the high demand for foreign exchange during the upcoming festive season and the new year.

As such, the Bank has embarked on a forward-looking policy approach to increase both the frequency of FX auctions and the quantum volumes of the amounts transacted. Going forward, FX auctions will be conducted twice a week with an increased amount of foreign exchange to meeting the surging demand and stabilize the exchange rate.

Communication and Public Relations Department-BoSS