Subject: Introducing of Electronic FX Auction

As part of modernizing the banking sector, the Bank of South Sudan is introducing the Electronic Foreign Exchange Auction System through Refinitiv Financial Platform part of London Stock Exchange Group which allows regulated entities to participate in the foreign exchange auction through its platform without physical presence at the Bank's premises.

Currently, all forex bureaus are directed to have an active bank account with any one of the commercial banks listed hereunder which have thus far successfully obtained Refinitiv Financial Platform.

- Buffalo Commercial Bank
- Cooperative Bank of South Sudan
- Eco-Bank South Sudan
- Equity Bank
- Ivory Bank
- Kenya Commercial Bank
- Kush Bank
- National Bank of Egypt
- Stanbic Bank

Kindly note that the deadline for the current auction system is April 24th, 2024, thereafter the system will go live, and all foreign exchange auctions will be conducted through the new electronic platform. The BoSS will also communicate names of additional banks once they get onboarded on the platform.
