CIRCULAR No. 01/2026/DSR

All Contracted Tax Collection Banks of the South Sudan Revenue Authority (SSRA)

Attention: Managing Directors

Subject: IMPLEMENTATION OF THE COLLECTION AND REMITTANCE OF TAX REVENUES

The Bank of South Sudan refers to Circular No. 2026/07/01 dated 31 July 2026, issued by the South Sudan Revenue Authority (SSRA), concerning the collection and remittance of tax revenues.

Pursuant to its statutory mandate to regulate and supervise the banking sector, the Bank of South Sudan hereby directs all banks designated to collect taxes on behalf of the South Sudan Revenue Authority to strictly comply with the following requirements:

1. Collection of Taxes in South Sudan Pounds (SSP)

   All tax liabilities assessed and payable in South Sudan Pounds (SSP) shall be collected exclusively through cash deposits at the designated tax collection banks.

   Upon receipt of payment, each designated collection bank shall:

   i. Accept the taxpayer's cash deposit.
   ii. Issue an official bank deposit slip as evidence of payment.
   iii. Properly record all tax collections in accordance with applicable banking regulations and SSRA procedures.

2. Remittance of Tax Revenues

   All designated tax collection banks shall:

   i. Receive all tax payments in South Sudan Pounds (SSP) in cash.
   ii. Remit the full amount of tax revenues collected to the Bank of South Sudan through the designated SSRA Block Accounts in strict accordance with the remittance procedures jointly issued by the Ministry of Finance and Planning and the South Sudan Revenue Authority.
   iii. Ensure that all tax revenues collected are safeguarded as Government funds and are not used, invested, pledged, offset, or otherwise applied for any banking, commercial, or operational purpose.

3. Reporting Requirements
   Each designated collection bank shall submit a detailed tax revenue remittance report to the Directorate of Supervision and Regulation on the 15th and 30th of every month. Where either reporting date falls on a weekend or public holiday, the report shall be submitted on the next working day.

4. Compliance and Supervisory Oversight
   The Bank of South Sudan shall closely monitor compliance with this Circular through its supervisory and regulatory functions. Any failure to comply with these directives or the applicable remittance procedures shall constitute a breach of regulatory requirements and may result in appropriate supervisory or enforcement measures under the applicable laws and regulations.

5. Effective Date
   These Circular takes effect immediately and shall remain in force until amended or revoked by the Bank of South Sudan.

By Order of the Bank of South Sudan.
